

ICLHE SPAIN Regional Group Symposium, 5th November 2020

Universitat de Lleida

Campus de Cappon/Primer d'Octubre, Edifici Polivalent

The ICLHE Spain Regional Group is organizing its first RG symposium. We will have presentations and panel discussions with expert researchers and practitioners. There will also be plenty of time for you to network and discuss your research and teaching contexts to help shape the future of ICLHE in Spain.

Sessions include:

- Presentations on research projects in ICLHE/EMI based in the Spanish setting, and stakeholders' views – both content and language experts.
- A Roundtable discussion on issues particularly relevant to the ICLHE/EMI field in Spain and implications for EMI training, EAP/ESP practices and curriculum and policy planning.
- A PhD corner where students researching in this field in the Spanish setting can present their on-going research.
